

Question Answer Relationships - 4 Types of Questions

In the Book QAR's

RIGHT THERE

The answer is in the text, and is usually easy to find. The words used to make up the question and words used to answer the questions are RIGHT THERE in the same sentence.

THINK and SEARCH (Putting it Together)

The answer is in the selection, but you need to put together different pieces of information to find it. Words for the question and words for the answer are not found in the same sentence. They come from different places in the selection

In your head QAR's

AUTHOR and YOU

The answer is NOT in the story. You need to think about what you already know (your background knowledge), what the author tells you in the text and how it fits together.

ON MY OWN

The answer is not in the text. You can even answer the question without reading the selection. You need to use your own experience. Teachers ask this type of question to bring out your prior or background knowledge.
